Women, men prepare for MIAA meet

Women's cross country enters race first time since 2004

By Jack Nicholl

For the first time since 2004, the No. 16 women's cross country team is nationally ranked.

The Bulldogs are the maximum of 10 runners to the meet. Their top competitors are No. 5 Missouri Southern State University, which finished first at the GLVC/MIAA, and is led by returning MIAA champion Amanda Schwegler. Darrin Dell’Orco, the Bulldogs' head coach, said the Bulldogs have not finished in the top two since 2004.

Dell’Orco said the team is on track to finish with about 20 minutes to play when “everything kind of fell apart” for the team. He said the team started running very well, and the team of Dixon and Walder did not play as aggressively as they should have in breakaways, and the team of Dixon and Walder did not play as aggressively as they should have in breakaways.

Like Truman, the Gorillas feature one runner in each event and are regionally ranked. The Norse struggled to finish move-ments throughout the second half, and their final score was 36-0 at home.

Bulls also were affected by two injuries. Senior Phil Fossen left with a right ankle sprain and junior Andrew Schmitt suffered a ankle injury. The Norse also did not have a match against the Bulldogs.

The reserves that came on in the second half, and the team played a strong game, but the reserves did not play as well as the Bulls. The reserves were able to score a goal in the second half.

The reserves that came on in the second half, and the team played a strong game, but the reserves did not play as well as the Bulls. The reserves were able to score a goal in the second half.

Bulls also were affected by two injuries. Senior Phil Fossen left with a right ankle sprain and junior Andrew Schmitt suffered a ankle injury. The Norse also did not have a match against the Bulldogs.

The reserves that came on in the second half, and the team played a strong game, but the reserves did not play as well as the Bulls. The reserves were able to score a goal in the second half.

Bulls also were affected by two injuries. Senior Phil Fossen left with a right ankle sprain and junior Andrew Schmitt suffered a ankle injury. The Norse also did not have a match against the Bulldogs.

The reserves that came on in the second half, and the team played a strong game, but the reserves did not play as well as the Bulls. The reserves were able to score a goal in the second half.