Advisers will now clear students to register instead of giving students RAC codes

BY STEPHANIE HALL
News Editor

Students will no longer need a Residence Access Code to register, but rather they will fill out an online form or submit it to their hall director. The form is available on the Residence Life Web site and must be turned in before Nov. 13.

Residence hall director. The form is available on the Thanksgiving break must respond to that resolution

President.(President. Residence Life re

the longer breaks each sem-

the new policy. Residence Life rethe new policy, essentially." Gardner said he is unsure how many stu-

Students who choose to stay will be pay a fee to cover additional costs. The fee cause students who stay will be required to residence hall. The dining halls will not be given a key to an exterior door of their staying in the building as well as a Residence in it during break will have a student adviser in before Nov. 13.

Residence Life Web site and must be turned hall director. The form is available on the fill out an online form or submit it to their

Thanksgiving break must

who want to stay over with the new policy.

sponded to that resolution

mester. Residence Life re-

or someone had extenuating circumstances, it was a type policy, where if an international student midterm break in the spring.

breaks, including Thanksgiving break and derived with the paper RAC codes, it was a and lower case, that sort of thing," Charles said. "We didn’t see it impacting students in

she forgot, but normally [the] RAC code is easy to do.

I did have one or two students say they forgot, but normally [their] RAC code is pretty nonexistent," Long said.

Residence halls open for Thanksgiving

BY DANA BRUKVOORT
Staff Reporter

Students living on campus have the option of eating their Thanksgiving turkeys in the Residence halls.

A new Residence Life policy will grant students living in residence halls the ability to stay over during breaks, including Thanksgiving break and midterm break in the spring.

"We’ve always sort of had an unofficial policy where if an international student or someone had extenuating circumstances, and they wanted to stay over during breaks, including Thanksgiving break and midterm break in the spring," Gardner said.

"We have a list [on TruView] where they get a list of all their advisees, and all they have to do is check a box next to their advi-

"I did have one or two students say they forgot, but normally [their] RAC code is pretty nonexistent," Long said.

This is a $25 per day or $150 for the entire break.

"We’re not sure how many people will

"I did have one or two students say they forgot, but normally [their] RAC code is pretty nonexistent," Long said.

"I did have one or two students say they forgot, but normally [their] RAC code is pretty nonexistent," Long said.

"I did have one or two students say they forgot, but normally [their] RAC code is pretty nonexistent," Long said.

"I did have one or two students say they forgot, but normally [their] RAC code is pretty nonexistent," Long said.