He said that DIC is in best position to distribute funding fairly, and with any luck, there is a better idea than the Senate to allocate funds and finding a way to make the process better for everybody.

The primary function of the FAC is to allocate funds and handle any grievances that arise. The FAC Chairman and President, from left to right, are Isaac Robinson and Delmar Stevenson. The FAC funding policy is designed to distribute funds fairly and equally among all organizations that apply.

Students present on study abroad

The students traveled to Cape Town from May 14 to June 5. They studied the multiple perspectives of apartheid in South Africa. They also traveled to the Western and Eastern Cape, Durban, and the former South African borders.
