National unemployment rate reaches 26-year high at 9.7 %

By Chris Drew

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped

National unemployment rate reaches 26-year high at 9.7 %

By Chris Drew

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped

Highway 63 bypass construction rolls on

By Tawanda Kanahema

Highway 63 bypass construction rolls on

ON THE ROAD

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped Kirksville: Truman, A.T. Still, manufacturing and

ON THE RISE

Unemployment rates:

National: 9.7 percent

State: 6.4 percent

County: 7.9 percent

Did not change from last year

ON THE RISE

Unemployment rates:

National: 9.7 percent

State: 6.4 percent

County: 7.9 percent

Did not change from last year

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped Kirksville: Truman, A.T. Still, manufacturing and

ON THE RISE

Unemployment rates:

National: 9.7 percent

State: 6.4 percent

County: 7.9 percent

Did not change from last year

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped Kirksville: Truman, A.T. Still, manufacturing and

ON THE RISE

Unemployment rates:

National: 9.7 percent

State: 6.4 percent

County: 7.9 percent

Did not change from last year

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped Kirksville: Truman, A.T. Still, manufacturing and

ON THE RISE

Unemployment rates:

National: 9.7 percent

State: 6.4 percent

County: 7.9 percent

Did not change from last year

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped Kirksville: Truman, A.T. Still, manufacturing and

ON THE RISE

Unemployment rates:

National: 9.7 percent

State: 6.4 percent

County: 7.9 percent

Did not change from last year

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped Kirksville: Truman, A.T. Still, manufacturing and

ON THE RISE

Unemployment rates:

National: 9.7 percent

State: 6.4 percent

County: 7.9 percent

Did not change from last year

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped Kirksville: Truman, A.T. Still, manufacturing and

ON THE RISE

Unemployment rates:

National: 9.7 percent

State: 6.4 percent

County: 7.9 percent

Did not change from last year

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped Kirksville: Truman, A.T. Still, manufacturing and

ON THE RISE

Unemployment rates:

National: 9.7 percent

State: 6.4 percent

County: 7.9 percent

Did not change from last year

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped Kirksville: Truman, A.T. Still, manufacturing and

ON THE RISE

Unemployment rates:

National: 9.7 percent

State: 6.4 percent

County: 7.9 percent

Did not change from last year

Truman avoided the loss of more than $5 million in funding this school year through distribution funds provided from the national government to the state of Missouri. With the national unemployment rate at 9.7 percent, the budget cuts which could have made for a diverse economy that has helped Kirksville: Truman, A.T. Still, manufacturing and