Win follows up 3-1 victory against Fort Hays State University.
BY BILL REPPON

Senior setter Ashley Petek led a strong offense with a double-double, and the Lady Bulldogs improved to 18-5 with the 18-9, 25-17, 18-25, 25-18 victory over the Greyhounds.

Triton's offense was led by Petek, who had 15 Kills, 12 assists and 22 digs. Junior Erin Cochrane had 14 assists, nine aces and seven digs. Petek said she was pleased with the team's performance.

"It's a great environment to be around," Petek said. "We have great chemistry as a team and everyone knows their roles.

Coach Pete Kendall praised the team's efforts.

"I'm very happy with the way we played," Kendall said. "We had a great start and were able to build on that throughout the match.

Volleyball tops SBU 3-2
BY BILL REPPON

Putnam City South tops Southern State University.
BY BILL REPPON

The Lady Bulldogs defeated SBU 3-2 (25-17, 20-25, 23-25, 25-17, 15-12) on Saturday at 3 p.m.

Senior middle blocker Megan Sharpe continued her trend of leading the team in kills. She had 12 and a total of 416 kills this season.

Junior setter Erin Cochrane was also a key player in the win. She recorded 414 digs and 12 assists.

Petek had an impressive performance, recording 16 kills and 12 assists.

Junior outside hitter Craig Petak also had a strong performance with 14 kills and 11 assists.

The team is now 18-5 and 2-0 in the conference.

TRUMAN ATHLETICS
News and Notes

Football: Masucci passes 200-point milestone
Junior fullback Ryan Masucci reached another milestone in Saturday's 41-31 loss to Fort Hays State University. He scored his 25th and 26th touchdowns of the season, surpassing the 200-point plateau.

Masucci is the first Truman player to score 200 points in a season since 2000.

Men's Soccer: Russell misses two matches
The Bulldogs had to rely on three players to replace senior defender Dan Russell, who headed to the team's Men's National Team Snap. Russell's injuries will affect the Bulldogs' defense in the upcoming matches.

Russell had two goals and three assists in 19 matches. His absence will be felt by the team's defense.

Volleyball: Petek sets career highs in sets
Junior setter Ashley Petek set a career-high with six sets against Fort Hays State University on Monday.

Petek had 414 sets this season, surpassing the 200-point plateau.

Her hitting percentage is now .270, highest in the conference.

Petek also had 46 aces and led her team in kills with 384.

Truman's match against Washburn was not up to their usual standards. The game was decided in the fourth set, where they lost 21-15.

Truman's next match is against Washburn University on Saturday at 2 p.m.

Can you see through the clutter?

[No text available for Volleyball: Petek sets career highs in sets]