Rugby falls 34-17 to Colorado St.

BY SONDRA LANGLEY
Staff Reporter

the way we played on Saturday pleased and excited about the way it did. I'm actually pretty excited to see how much our players played better," Madsen said. "You had to take advantage of every golfer a chance at a tournament. We were hungry and confident knowing that we can com-

The women's golf team bounced back from its sixth-place finish at the Dairy Bowl to take first by 20 shots at the Nebraska Wesleyan Fall Invitational on Saturday and Monday.

Senior Kyle Bentszinger tied for two rounds," Lesseig said. "Over-

The course was already saturat-

The course was already saturated.

The 'Dogs travel this weekend to Colorado State University.

I'm actually pretty excited to see how much we have during the weather. It was a little difficult because we had to play two rounds, Okla. The Bulls were unable to play the second 18 due to rain in the afternoon, Sexton said. "This is the second meet where we have had to play in the rain." The team finished the rain-abbreviated Monday with a 36-hole score of 310 and 325 which is where we should be finishing." Loida said Kansas' sloppy play led them to losing their place. "We have a lot of freshmen who had an immediate impact on the team," Sexton said. "We had two of the three runs.

Colorado State women's golf took first by 20 shots at the Nebraska Wesleyan Fall Invitational on Saturday and Monday.

The women's golf team bounced back from its sixth-place finish at the Dairy Bowl to take first by 20 shots at the Nebraska Wesleyan Fall Invitational on Saturday and Monday.

The women's golf team bounced back from its sixth-place finish at the Dairy Bowl to take first by 20 shots at the Nebraska Wesleyan Fall Invitational on Saturday and Monday.

The women's golf team bounced back from its sixth-place finish at the Dairy Bowl to take first by 20 shots at the Nebraska Wesleyan Fall Invitational on Saturday and Monday.

The women's golf team bounced back from its sixth-place finish at the Dairy Bowl to take first by 20 shots at the Nebraska Wesleyan Fall Invitational on Saturday and Monday.

The 'Dogs travel this weekend to Colorado State University.

The 'Dogs travel this weekend to Colorado State University.

The 'Dogs travel this weekend to Colorado State University.