Teachers incorporate electronic literature

By ANNA MEIER Staff Reporter

Just across the Rio Grande from El Paso, Texas, one of the most disturbing cases of violence against a group of people has been taking place for more than 15 years. The real killer? The government might have been involved in this process since February.

“Women have been living in fear and uncertainty ever since 1993. The women are对于我们而言是不可或缺的。" Barbara Martinez Jitner

Barbara Martinez Jitner, Juezar, Mexico: The Capital of Murdered Women

- More than 400 women have been raped, murdered and tortured at maquiladoras (American factories)
- Martinez Jitner posed as factory story to learn about the poverty and sexual abuse

From www.keplerspeakers.com

Activist speaks for unsolved murders

By ANNA MEIER Staff Reporter

Just across the Rio Grande from El Paso, Texas, one of the most disturbing cases of violence against a group of people has been taking place for more than 15 years. The real killer? The government might have been involved in this process since February.

“Women have been living in fear and uncertainty ever since 1993. The women are对于我们而言是不可或缺的。" Barbara Martinez Jitner

Barbara Martinez Jitner, Juezar, Mexico: The Capital of Murdered Women

- More than 400 women have been raped, murdered and tortured at maquiladoras (American factories)
- Martinez Jitner posed as factory story to learn about the poverty and sexual abuse

From www.keplerspeakers.com

activist speaks for unsolved murders