CORRECTIONS

The Feb. 4 article "Developer to Build Hotel" incorrectly noted the number of rooms the proposed project would have. The correct number is 82 rooms.

NEWS

IN BRIEF

Kohlenberg Lyceum musical honors rock 'n' roll greats

The last event of the Kohlenberg Lyceum Series will take place 7:30 p.m. Feb. 24, in Baldwin Auditorium.

"Million Dollar Quartet" is a musical inspired by the Dec. 4, 1956, recording session with Elvis Presley, Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis and Carl Perkins. Songs from the musical include classic rock 'n' roll hits such as "Blue Suede Shoes," "Fever," "Great Balls of Fire" and "Walk the Line." The musical is scheduled to air as an eight-episode television series later this year.

Students can pick up free tickets at the Student Activities Board box office. General admission is $11, and tickets can be purchased at the cashier's window in McClain Hall.

Forensic Union wins 12 awards at Gorlock Gala tournament

Members of Truman State's Forensic Union are preparing for the Feb. 19-20 state championship following a strong showing at the Gorlock Gala tournament last weekend.

The tournament was hosted by Webster University and had more than 600 total entries. The team brought home 12 awards in Lincoln-Douglas debates and individual events speeches. The Missouri Association of Forensic Activities will host the state championship.
