

Artist ponders adulthood with new exhibit

Emily Wichmer/Index

Above: The artwork of Danielle Yakle is featured in the University Art Gallery in Ophelia Parrish alongside works by artists James Ehlers and Ricardo Quiñónez Alemán. Yakle's works all feature casts of her mother's head. Below: Yakle's series, "Childish Things," explores the performative nature of children's dolls. Yakle said she intended her pieces to include a sense of discovery and play coupled with elements of frustration and vulnerability.
