

BIG Dream Gathering inspires students to realize their dreams

Trevor Stark/Index

IN BRIEF

DPS releases Annual Security and Fire Report

Sarah Holzmeier, Department of Public Safety Director, announced the release of the 2015 Annual Security and Fire Report Monday morning in an email to faculty, staff and students.

The comprehensive report compiles 2012-2014 crime and fire statistics. The report also gives detailed information regarding DPS procedures, policies and programs.

The report indicated forcible sex offenses, robberies, burglaries, liquor law violations referred for disciplinary action and stalking incidents all increased during 2014.

The report is available at the DPS website, police.truman.edu.

Adair County Health Department to host annual drive-thru flu clinic

The Adair County Health Department will host its annual free drive-thru flu clinic noon to 6 p.m. today, Oct. 1, at the NEMO fairgrounds.

The clinic is free for Adair County residents ages four and older. The department recommends those planning to attend the clinic fill out a consent form, available at adair.lphamo.org, prior to coming, wear short sleeves and bring their Medicare or Medicaid card with them. A map is available on the website with directions on how to navigate the drive-thru clinic.
