Tennis Schedules

Women's
- Feb. 23 vs. Principia
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 20 vs. St. Louis
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 18 at Indiana State
  - Location: Indiana State
  - Score: 5-2

Men's
- Feb. 23 vs. Principia
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 20 at Indiana State
  - Location: Indiana State
  - Score: 5-2

Shuttle Van
- Destinations: Alton, Illinois, and St. Louis, Missouri

---

Bullets rugby eager to begin season

Our Junior Men's rugby team has already faced the familiar Windy City for the third meet this season on the 50. The Dogs now host Hamburger Hauteboys on Saturday.

---

Shape the Future of Health Care

As a Doctor of Chiropractic

- You want to help people get well and stay well.
- You want to work independently as a self-employed physician or employee.
- You want to achieve financial security, earn a better income, and enjoy autonomy while being your own boss.
- You want to keep your career options open in a rapidly changing field.
- You want to improve your position in the community as a highly respected Doctor of Chiropractic.
- You may have children in college...
- You may be caring for a parent...
- You're ready to make some major changes in your life...

Then you really are a challenging and rewarding career in chiropractic. Contact Logan College.

Logan College

1-800-533-9210

Logancollege.com

Call Vista Heights Apartments to Stop Our Office

2320 S. Main St
Kearney, NE 68847
(308) 853-9224

---

'Dogs drop two dual matches

Phil St. Wivre

Staff Reporter

Despite several individual performance highlights, the Bulldog wrestling squad couldn't pull off victories against Truman State (Kansas) or Simpson College (Iowa-Creighton) after the home meet Thursday against Northern New Mexico.

At the home meet Thursday against Fort Hays, sophomore Mike Scott won a 113-pound match, but the team eventually fell 30-10 to the Pirates.

Joe Staton

Staff Reporter

Senior Corey Cranell tries to get position on a Fort Hays State (Kansas) wrestler (not pictured) with a 9.5-pound lead during the dual meet this 50. The Dogs host Hamburger Hauteboys on Saturday.

---

Tennis Schedules

Women's
- Feb. 23 vs. Principia
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 20 vs. St. Louis
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 18 at Indiana State
  - Location: Indiana State
  - Score: 5-2

Men's
- Feb. 23 vs. Principia
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 20 at Indiana State
  - Location: Indiana State
  - Score: 5-2

Shuttle Van
- Destinations: Alton, Illinois, and St. Louis, Missouri

---

Bullets rugby eager to begin season

Our Junior Men's rugby team has already faced the familiar Windy City for the third meet this season on the 50. The Dogs now host Hamburger Hauteboys on Saturday.

---

Shape the Future of Health Care

As a Doctor of Chiropractic

- You want to help people get well and stay well.
- You want to work independently as a self-employed physician or employee.
- You want to achieve financial security, earn a better income, and enjoy autonomy while being your own boss.
- You want to keep your career options open in a rapidly changing field.
- You want to improve your position in the community as a highly respected Doctor of Chiropractic.
- You may have children in college...
- You may be caring for a parent...
- You're ready to make some major changes in your life...

Then you really are a challenging and rewarding career in chiropractic. Contact Logan College.

Logan College

1-800-533-9210

Logancollege.com

Call Vista Heights Apartments to Stop Our Office

2320 S. Main St
Kearney, NE 68847
(308) 853-9224

---

'Dogs drop two dual matches

Phil St. Wivre

Staff Reporter

Despite several individual performance highlights, the Bulldog wrestling squad couldn't pull off victories against Truman State (Kansas) or Simpson College (Iowa-Creighton) after the home meet Thursday against Northern New Mexico.

At the home meet Thursday against Fort Hays, sophomore Mike Scott won a 113-pound match, but the team eventually fell 30-10 to the Pirates.

Joe Staton

Staff Reporter

Senior Corey Cranell tries to get position on a Fort Hays State (Kansas) wrestler (not pictured) with a 9.5-pound lead during the dual meet this 50. The Dogs host Hamburger Hauteboys on Saturday.

---

Tennis Schedules

Women's
- Feb. 23 vs. Principia
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 20 vs. St. Louis
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 18 at Indiana State
  - Location: Indiana State
  - Score: 5-2

Men's
- Feb. 23 vs. Principia
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 20 at Indiana State
  - Location: Indiana State
  - Score: 5-2

Shuttle Van
- Destinations: Alton, Illinois, and St. Louis, Missouri

---

Bullets rugby eager to begin season

Our Junior Men's rugby team has already faced the familiar Windy City for the third meet this season on the 50. The Dogs now host Hamburger Hauteboys on Saturday.

---

Shape the Future of Health Care

As a Doctor of Chiropractic

- You want to help people get well and stay well.
- You want to work independently as a self-employed physician or employee.
- You want to achieve financial security, earn a better income, and enjoy autonomy while being your own boss.
- You want to keep your career options open in a rapidly changing field.
- You want to improve your position in the community as a highly respected Doctor of Chiropractic.
- You may have children in college...
- You may be caring for a parent...
- You're ready to make some major changes in your life...

Then you really are a challenging and rewarding career in chiropractic. Contact Logan College.

Logan College

1-800-533-9210

Logancollege.com

Call Vista Heights Apartments to Stop Our Office

2320 S. Main St
Kearney, NE 68847
(308) 853-9224

---

'Dogs drop two dual matches

Phil St. Wivre

Staff Reporter

Despite several individual performance highlights, the Bulldog wrestling squad couldn't pull off victories against Truman State (Kansas) or Simpson College (Iowa-Creighton) after the home meet Thursday against Northern New Mexico.

At the home meet Thursday against Fort Hays, sophomore Mike Scott won a 113-pound match, but the team eventually fell 30-10 to the Pirates.

Joe Staton

Staff Reporter

Senior Corey Cranell tries to get position on a Fort Hays State (Kansas) wrestler (not pictured) with a 9.5-pound lead during the dual meet this 50. The Dogs host Hamburger Hauteboys on Saturday.

---

Tennis Schedules

Women's
- Feb. 23 vs. Principia
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 20 vs. St. Louis
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 18 at Indiana State
  - Location: Indiana State
  - Score: 5-2

Men's
- Feb. 23 vs. Principia
  - Location: State
  - Score: 5-2
- Feb. 20 at Indiana State
  - Location: Indiana State
  - Score: 5-2

Shuttle Van
- Destinations: Alton, Illinois, and St. Louis, Missouri

---

Bullets rugby eager to begin season

Our Junior Men's rugby team has already faced the familiar Windy City for the third meet this season on the 50. The Dogs now host Hamburger Hauteboys on Saturday.

---

Shape the Future of Health Care

As a Doctor of Chiropractic

- You want to help people get well and stay well.
- You want to work independently as a self-employed physician or employee.
- You want to achieve financial security, earn a better income, and enjoy autonomy while being your own boss.
- You want to keep your career options open in a rapidly changing field.
- You want to improve your position in the community as a highly respected Doctor of Chiropractic.
- You may have children in college...
- You may be caring for a parent...
- You're ready to make some major changes in your life...

Then you really are a challenging and rewarding career in chiropractic. Contact Logan College.

Logan College

1-800-533-9210

Logancollege.com

Call Vista Heights Apartments to Stop Our Office

2320 S. Main St
Kearney, NE 68847
(308) 853-9224

---

'Dogs drop two dual matches

Phil St. Wivre

Staff Reporter

Despite several individual performance highlights, the Bulldog wrestling squad couldn't pull off victories against Truman State (Kansas) or Simpson College (Iowa-Creighton) after the home meet Thursday against Northern New Mexico.

At the home meet Thursday against Fort Hays, sophomore Mike Scott won a 113-pound match, but the team eventually fell 30-10 to the Pirates.

Joe Staton

Staff Reporter

Senior Corey Cranell tries to get position on a Fort Hays State (Kansas) wrestler (not pictured) with a 9.5-pound lead during the dual meet this 50. The Dogs host Hamburger Hauteboys on Saturday.