Season draws near for lacrosse squad

Stan Carroll

The men’s lacrosse team is getting ready for its first home game as the season begins.

The men’s D-I game of the season is at 2 p.m. Saturday against the University of Missouri-Rolla. Senior Doug Wallner said the team has had to practice in the multi-purpose Recreation Center because of the weather, but they will play in games outside.

The team plays again Sunday against the University of Missouri-Columbia, which is another question. That’s all we know how to play in.
