Republican senatorial candidate: Jim Talent talks to supporters as his son Michael, 12, looks on at his election house, police said.

SPICE GIRL KIDNAPPING PLOT FOILED BY REPORTERS

LONDON — A man accused of abducting Spice Girl Emma Bunton by black-clothed kidnappers is in custody in the Netherlands, police said.

The man led police to a house where Emma Bunton, of the band’s Mel B and Geri Halliwell, was reported to have been held.

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — More than 13,000 construction workers joined the strike, nearly all of whom have returned to work despite warnings by employers that it will mean their jobs.

In Geneva, where about 3,800 workers joined the strike, nearly all building workers were on strike, the highest levels of the strike in the country.”

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. forces killed a top al-Qaeda leader in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans recaptured the Senate for the first time outside of Afghanistan’s war zone.

The United States killed a top leader of Al Qaeda in Yemen while launching a strike in which two men and a woman were killed, a U.S. defense official said Wednesday.

The official confirmed that the U.S. military killed the al-Qaeda leader and two other people in a strike in the lawless province of Marib, about 100 miles east of Yemen’s capital, Sana’a, where al-Qaeda operatives are based.