The football team honored back four seniors, including quarterback Andy Howie (Kirksville, Mo.), at the halftime of the football game Saturday. The seniors included Felicia Black (Holt, Mich.), Andre Harris (Apple Valley, Minn.) and Dippel (Mason, Mich.), Michael Baker (Holt, Mich.),  and Rhonda Vincent and the Rage are coming to Baldwin Auditorium on Saturday.

Homecoming loss to Washburn University (Topeka, Kan.). Junior defensive back Shaun Lowery rushes in for the tackle during Truman’s 26-22 loss. After allowing 14 points in the first half, the Bulldogs regrouped to prevent Missouri Southern from scoring in the second half. Our defense really came together in the second half of the football all year,” head coach John Ware said.

The defense was equally impressive. After allowing 14 points in the first half, the Bulldogs regrouped to prevent Missouri Southern from scoring in the second half. “Our defense really came together in the second half,” head coach John Ware said.

The victory came on the heels of a disappointing loss to Washburn on Oct. 12 during Truman’s Homecoming game. The Bulldogs have won five of the past six games but the loss was devastating, but it also helped motivate the ‘Dogs.

“We knew it was a game we should have won,” head coach John Ware said. “We were disappointed with the way we started the game.”

The key to the defensive turnaround was preventing Missouri Southern from scoring in the second half. “We make adjustments at halftime,” Howie said. “We made adjustments to what was working and things we had to do better in the second half, and we did.”

The improved team finished the game 5-2 overall and 3-2 in MIAA conference play.

The ‘Dogs will face a tough test on Saturday when they host fourth-ranked Northwest Missouri State University (Maryville). Northwest is unbeaten and has allowed just 15 points during five conference games.
