University evaluates master plan after 5 years

The University is halfway through the first five years of a master planning project.

The University's student-produced newspaper

Outside consultant aids search for new president

Committee allocates $50,000 for recruiting candidates

The Presidential Search Committee announced that it has set aside $50,000 for seeking new university leaders.

Kirkville residents want input in KPD chief search

Citizens feel the police department should be more inclusive.

Software glitch results in no charges to printing accounts

A software glitch meant student account numbers were not recorded correctly.

Opinions

Columnist Ann McFarland discusses stereotyping and race.

Labor Pain

Bush administration works to settle labor dispute before strike.

Weather

The weather is partly cloudy with showers Friday.

Return to Tradition

Baseball just isn't the same without the crack of the wooden bats

SPORTS PAGE 18

Table of Contents

Opinions

Page 4

Labor Pain

Page 6

Weather

Page 7

Return to Tradition

Baseball just isn't the same without the crack of the wooden bats

Table of Contents