Painting problems plague fountain

Painting problems, recently noticed that a Truman landmark, the fountain in front of Student Union Building, is not painted properly.

The fountain is the creation of Daniel Gugger, the sculpture department head, and was his first attempt to repair the fountain.

"It's not outside building, and we want to look very good," Daubert said. "It's kind of an embar- rassment. It looks bad, and we don't like the fact that it looks bad, so we want to paint it."

Daubert said the fountain is painted on the same number of days as previous years. He said the weather, and the state of the paint, determines when UIW employees can paint the fountain.

Junior Jon Beckmeyer, student writer and campus environment committee chairman, said the fountain's current condition is detrimental to Truman's image.

"We put the fountain on all our promotional materials. Bottom: The fountain as it appeared Wednesday.

I think the challenge that we're faced with is to get the public transit will operate Monday through Friday and Saturday from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.
