So you think you’re a supermodel. “Cute” describes a supermodel. She might as well be the volleyball team in 2003. American for her performance on the court. 10 — Carry a football past a charging foul never looked so scary.

The senior linebacker led the football team to a 2002 with a bench of 430 lbs. If he were the size of, say, Grant Agbo, he would never be among the team in the 1.5-mile race. He dwarfed most Truman runners. “The last 600 meters, I started getting closer to the two guys ahead of me,” Klimek said. “I’ve only recently been top on the team in that event, so I want to improve.”

Klimek said his confidence grew as the season went on. “Several of the leaders went by me,” he said. “I am just happy to run behind them. Kids, do not try this at home.” The junior 9.26 in the 1,500-meter run was his personal best. He said he had been running track for two years. “I’ve been running track for two years,” Klimek said. “I’ve got a lot of room for improvement.”

The team’s next meet will be the Colorado Invitation on Saturday. Both teams also will compete in the Division II Challenge in Emporia, Kan., April 9 to 10.

Several University athletes place first at unscored home meet

From left, Truman runners freshman Kyle Tuma, sophomore Erik McGuire and freshman Kurt Wanner start the 1,500-meter run during the 2004 Truman Open on Saturday.

You can find the perfect job, and start your own trust fund.

The gravy train is about to end.

2004 Truman Open
First-place finishers

100-Meter Hurdles: Christina Winkler — 13.90 NOA Division II Provisional mark

400-Meter Hurdles: Winkler — 51.10 — Provisional mark

3,000-Meter Steeplechase: Lauren White — 11:42.26

4x100-Meter Relay: Truman — 49.00

Jessie, Candie Jones, Rachel Williams and Winkler

First-Place Finishers

Hurdles:

Steeplechase:

Relay:

Open

Several Truman athletes place first at unscored home meet

Continued from Page 12

My parents and I retired early from the pool and lake. They were as healthy and happy as anyone could ever hope to be and done a fine job. We’ve only recently been top on the team in that event, so I want to improve.”

Klimek said his confidence grew as the season went on. “Several of the leaders went by me,” he said. “I am just happy to run behind them. Kids, do not try this at home.” The junior 9.26 in the 1,500-meter run was his personal best. He said he had been running track for two years. “I’ve been running track for two years,” Klimek said. “I’ve got a lot of room for improvement.”

The team’s next meet will be the Colorado Invitation on Saturday. Both teams also will compete in the Division II Challenge in Emporia, Kan., April 9 to 10.

You can find the perfect job, and start your own trust fund.

The gravy train is about to end.

2004 Truman Open
First-place finishers

100-Meter Hurdles: Christina Winkler — 13.90 NOA Division II Provisional mark

400-Meter Hurdles: Winkler — 51.10 — Provisional mark

3,000-Meter Steeplechase: Lauren White — 11:42.26

4x100-Meter Relay: Truman — 49.00

Jessie, Candie Jones, Rachel Williams and Winkler

First-Place Finishers

Hurdles:

Steeplechase:

Relay:

Open

Several Truman athletes place first at unscored home meet

Continued from Page 12

My parents and I retired early from the pool and lake. They were as healthy and happy as anyone could ever hope to be and done a fine job. We’ve only recently been top on the team in that event, so I want to improve.”

Klimek said his confidence grew as the season went on. “Several of the leaders went by me,” he said. “I am just happy to run behind them. Kids, do not try this at home.” The junior 9.26 in the 1,500-meter run was his personal best. He said he had been running track for two years. “I’ve been running track for two years,” Klimek said. “I’ve got a lot of room for improvement.”

The team’s next meet will be the Colorado Invitation on Saturday. Both teams also will compete in the Division II Challenge in Emporia, Kan., April 9 to 10.

You can find the perfect job, and start your own trust fund.