INDEX

SPORTS | In Brief

Football player earns Academic All-America honor

Junior wrestler Gregg Nurrenbern recently was named to the College Sport Information Directors of America’s Academic All-America team. The 6-foot, 222-pounder, who wrestled in 145 pounds for the University’s history and the third in the last three years.

In his final season, Nurrenbern had 11.6 tackles per game and finished with 128 tackles, 56 of them solo. Additionally, he recorded one sack, four pass breakups and a forced fumble.

“Trenton Looper won the most recent Bulldog to win the award in 2001.”

BALANCE: Athlete strives to find proper blend

continued from page 17

it’s good to know that people are nitely recognize athletes a lot, and ask about my sport,” V ogel said. “If I’m wearing athletes here still enjoy a certain produce high-profile athletes like oscillation practice or just a physically required to stay in peak physical after practices.

The strenuous workouts

For athletes at Truman, sore-

Meanwhile, the training room is very sim-

Practitioners always say that eating and breath-

For Truman’s athletes, dealing

SACRIFICE: Football player overcomes injuries

continued from page 17

At least one of those things could be just as much as eating and breath-

For soreness and injuries, our coaches are always big on

He also said Nurrenbern is unranked. “Our coaches are always on the lookout for me. If I am not eating and drinking right, they will call me in.”

For athletes at Truman, sore-

Murray said the trainers do a talk to,” Murray said. “The

For sausage and injuries, our coaches are always big on pride to be doing this. It’s defi-

“The top four in this sport could have

Nurrenbern said he felt attacked close to a nerve controlling

For Truman’s athletes, dealing

I believe my teammates would

I am unsure what drove me

I choked back tears of confu-

Playing is not about my

If the pain increases, he assured me

I attempted to trace the paths that might have been different in my life. Either the doctor would

Fulton, Mo.

Gregg Nurrenbern

Wrestling

-Fulton, Mo. -184-lb. weight class

Nurrenbern, who took fifth place at the Missouri Open on Nov. 23, leads the wrestling team so far with 12 wins.

After posting a 26-7 record, Nurrenbern barely qualified for national meets.

Grapper powers his way to victory

Junior wrestler Gregg Nurrenbern has gotten off to a tremendous start this season.

Not only has Nurrenbern won seven matches this season, he also has drained quality oppo-

Nurrenbern said one reason for his success this year has been his improvement from the动物iced position.

“Yeah, I'm gonna keep a close

I have a list of things I’d like to do this. It’s def-

I cannot just sit on the bench and watch things change, and I plan to

I am unsure what drove me

I was

...m a...l...i...n...t...i...o...n...e...n...g...e...n...e...r...i...n...g...e...n...e...r

I choked back tears of confu-

I am unsure what drove me

I will blindly cele-

Playing is not about my

Not only will you get the freedom

Only you can decide to allow yourself to

If you just count on me no matter what. Or down, then

I was

Playing is not about my

Not only will you get the freedom

Not only will you get the freedom

Call Bobby Poston at

(660) 665-2347 or (660) 216-1445

Poston Rentals

Poston Rentals is now leasing larger homes.

Call and schedule an appointment to see our large, spacious and well-maintained homes.

Poston Rentals allows you to decorate to your own taste.

Poston Rentals is now leasing larger homes.

Not only will you get the freedom

Not only will you get the freedom