Dr. Dennis Leavens will lead the discussion.

Conference Room of the SUB.

The meetings will take place in the Missouri-London Study Abroad Program.

Students interested in the PPRROOGGRRAAM  MMEEEETTIINNGG attend a public college

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush, accepting the applause of a friendly audience in a speech Tuesday night that America enjoys a growing economy but is still at war and must act “within our current war-limited” budget.

After more than two years without a significant attack, he said it was time to think how to keep the budget intact.

Bush's speech was designed to help him as the commander in chief, grappling with the nation’s problems and above all, policy, while Democratic leaders for his office race toward the campaign trail, their plans.

Bush conveyed a broader “coalition” mood. $5,000

Health care: President Bush's plan will ensure expansion to Americans, strong

Democrats from power for nation-

John Kerry

U.S. Representative, Massachusetts

Current position: Senator, Massachusetts

“America this evening is a nation called to great responsi-

The speech fell one day after

Wednesday, March 7, 2007

Bush urged Congress to

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush, accepting the applause of a friendly audience in a speech Tuesday night that America enjoys a growing economy but is still at war and must act “within our current war-limited” budget.

After more than two years without a significant attack, he said it was time to think how to keep the budget intact.

Bush's speech was designed to help him as the commander in chief, grappling with the nation’s problems and above all, policy, while Democratic leaders for his office race toward the campaign trail, their plans.

Bush conveyed a broader “coalition” mood. $5,000

Health care: President Bush's plan will ensure expansion to Americans, strong

Democrats from power for nation-

John Kerry

U.S. Representative, Massachusetts

Current position: Senator, Massachusetts

“America this evening is a nation called to great responsi-

The speech fell one day after

Wednesday, March 7, 2007

Bush urged Congress to