Students pose nude for art classes

The University's chapter of Bacchus and Gamma Peer Education Network will hold a drunk driving simulation at 5:30 p.m. Oct. 14 in the rafted field at LaHarpe.

Bacchus and Gamma are two organizations that promote sobriety awareness and responsible decision-making.

Student actors will perform a three-car accident involving an intra-urban car driving the wrong way, a west-bound car before colliding with a car coming traffic, colliding with a car that was waiting to turn.

Both professors have returned to their regular teaching schedules.
