Family sues two airlines
Children lose mother in plane crash, suit filed for wrongful death

Shikana Temille Porter

Dr. Shikana Temille Porter is a licensed Clinical Psychologist and Director of Route 66 Counseling Services in Los Angeles.

Dr. Shikana Temille Porter is a licensed Clinical Psychologist and Director of Psychology Training at Saint John S

Saturday, February 17, 2005

NEWS

Subpoena deadline for abstracts for Student Research Conference is Friday

Sherly SI

The University will receive a University-wide Celebration of Student Research, Scholarship and Creative Achievement on April 14. This annual research conference is the 15th Undergraduate Research Conference and the Broad Graduate Research Conferences, and these two will be combined into one event. The two conferences are encouraged to present their work, which will be met during the day April 14.

A number of abstract submissions is Friday. Information about presentations options, eligible projects, faculty contact, and more is available at the conference website at usm.edu/research.

Student organizations sponsor activities for prevention of alcohol misuse throughout February

The University’s Division of Fine Arts will present the musical "Cabaret," written by John Kander and Fred Ebb and directed by Lee Orchard, professor of theatre. The performances will be at 7 p.m. Feb. 27, 7:30 p.m. Feb. 28 and 8 p.m. March 4-5. All shows will be in the Ophelia Parrish Performing Arts Center.

A number of health-based activities will take place at the University until Thursday in celebration of the Health Awareness Fair. Those interested in more information may contact Carissa A. Allen at 665-6659.

The Nursing Students Association, Phi Epsilon Kappa and the OHS Preparatory Program at the University announced the OHS Preparatory Program at the University announces upcoming event:

"Routes to Roots: Pathways Towards an African Centered Psychology" sponsored by Association of Black Collegians (ABC) and FAC

Dr. Shikana Temille Porter is a licenced Clinical Psychologist and Director of Psychology Training at Saint John's Child and Family Development Center in Santa Monica, California. He is also an Assistant Professor of Counseling Services at the CSU, St. Louis and Director of Disability Services and Programs at the University of Southern California. In addition, he worked in the Student Counseling Center there for five years as a Senior Staff Psychologist. Prior to joining the Trojan Family, Dr. Porter had worked for five years in San Diego State University as a counselor in the Department of Africana Studies, Women's Studies, the College of Education and a private practitioner. He has also maintained a private practice and provided clinical services.

Routes to Roots: Pathways Towards an African Centered Psychology

Sponsored by Association of Black Collegians (ABC) and FAC

Dr. Shikana Temille Porter is a licenced Clinical Psychologist and Director of Psychology Training at Saint John’s Child and Family Development Center in Santa Monica, California. He is also an Assistant Professor of Counseling Services at the CSU, St. Louis and Director of Disability Services and Programs at the University of Southern California. In addition, he worked in the Student Counseling Center there for five years as a Senior Staff Psychologist. Prior to joining the Trojan Family, Dr. Porter had worked for five years in San Diego State University as a counselor in the Department of Africana Studies, Women’s Studies, the College of Education and a private practitioner. He has also maintained a private practice and provided clinical services.

Dr. Shikana Temille Porter is a licenced Clinical Psychologist and Director of Psychology Training at Saint John’s Child and Family Development Center in Santa Monica, California. He is also an Assistant Professor of Counseling Services at the CSU, St. Louis and Director of Disability Services and Programs at the University of Southern California. In addition, he worked in the Student Counseling Center there for five years as a Senior Staff Psychologist. Prior to joining the Trojan Family, Dr. Porter had worked for five years in San Diego State University as a counselor in the Department of Africana Studies, Women’s Studies, the College of Education and a private practitioner. He has also maintained a private practice and provided clinical services.

Dr. Shikana Temille Porter is a licenced Clinical Psychologist and Director of Psychology Training at Saint John’s Child and Family Development Center in Santa Monica, California. He is also an Assistant Professor of Counseling Services at the CSU, St. Louis and Director of Disability Services and Programs at the University of Southern California. In addition, he worked in the Student Counseling Center there for five years as a Senior Staff Psychologist. Prior to joining the Trojan Family, Dr. Porter had worked for five years in San Diego State University as a counselor in the Department of Africana Studies, Women’s Studies, the College of Education and a private practitioner. He has also maintained a private practice and provided clinical services.