Around the ‘Ville

Women's and Gender Studies Fall Picnic
The Fall Picnic for Women's and Gender Studies students will be 4 to 6 p.m. Friday on the Quad. Live music, food, and beverages will be provided. Students interested in this field can attend and learn about the program.

NEMO Food Fest
The 4th annual NEMO Food Fest will be 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sept. 18 on the Square. Free local food, cooking demos and door prizes will be provided. Local band Beyond the Gael will be performing. Sponsors include the University of Missouri Extension, Truman State University Agricultural Sciences Department, Kirksville Chamber of Commerce, Collins Rentals and Kirksville Area Gardeners.

University Visit Day
High school students will have the opportunity to visit Truman and tour campus Sept. 18 during this official visit event.

House Band Auditions
The Damascus Road House Band will hold auditions at 8 p.m. Sept. 19 at the One10 Building on Normal Street. The house band covers artists including Metatalk, Ashlee Simpson and Train.