The Bulldogs defeated Hannibal-LaGrange College on Nov. 17 45-12 in the 2011 home opener. The victory moved the 'Dogs to 2-0 for the season. After the first five bouts of the dual, which all were decided by forfeit, Truman was ahead 24-6. Sophomore Josh Wells defeated Hannibal-LaGrange sophomore Bryce Alexandar 10-8 using a late escape to put him ahead with five seconds to go in the 165-pound match. After junior Sean Brown was pinned two minutes and 36 seconds into the first round in the 174 slot, two more opens and senior Thomas Redmon's 36 second pin of Hannibal-LaGrange sophomore Jake Hare gave the Bulldogs the victory.

"They had a lot of open due to some problems but I thought our kids handled the situation well," head coach David Schutter said. "They competed well in front of the home crowd and that was a nice win for Thomas [Redmond]." The Bulldogs are 2-0 in dual meets and have outscored their opponents 71-36. Edwards is one of six Bulldogs wrestling competitively at the collegiate level for the first time this year.

"I'm told very early in the season and my conditioning and wrestling are not top notch yet, but if I stay focused, by the end of year matches like these most should go in my favor."

Well lost his first match by fall but was able to bounce back by pinning his next opponent in just one minute and 18 seconds and won his third match 3-2. He would go on to drop his last bout to University of Missouri freshman T.J. Parker on a 5-1 decision.

"The only other Bulldog to score a victory in the tournament was sophomore Joel Geders," Schutter said. "We have room to improve," Geders said. "But then again we were up against some of the top Division I, NAIA and Div. II teams in the country. Ryan [Maus] almost beat a kid from Iowa and Josh [Wells] did well after banging up his knee. We have room to improve but with that tough of competition I think we did pretty well."

The Bulldogs will compete next at the Simpson College Invitational on Dec. 3 in Indianola, Iowa. Nine of the teams competing are ranked either in the NAIA or Div. II. "It's going to be a tough tournament," Schutter said. "We've won up there and won it before and we've stuck it up before. It just kind of lets you know where you're at. It's tough on our schedule. We'll go out there and compete. Our kids are tough, resilient bunch or guys. They're a bunch of fighters."

Men continue perfect season

BY TYLER SIGRIST
Staff Reporter

The Bulldogs defeated Hannibal-LaGrange College on Nov. 17 45-12 in the 2011 home opener. The victory moved the 'Dogs to 2-0 for the season. After the first five bouts of the dual, which all were decided by forfeit, Truman was ahead 24-6. Sophomore Josh Wells defeated Hannibal-LaGrange sophomore Bryce Alexandar 10-8 using a late escape to put him ahead with five seconds to go in the 165-pound match. After junior Sean Brown was pinned two minutes and 36 seconds into the first round in the 174 slot, two more opens and senior Thomas Redmon's 36 second pin of Hannibal-LaGrange sophomore Jake Hare gave the Bulldogs the victory.

"They had a lot of open due to some problems but I thought our kids handled the situation well," head coach David Schutter said. "They competed well in front of the home crowd and that was a nice win for Thomas [Redmond]."

The Bulldogs are 2-0 in dual meets and have outscored their opponents 71-36. Edwards is one of six Bulldogs wrestling competitively at the collegiate level for the first time this year.

"The only other Bulldog to score a victory in the tournament was sophomore Joel Geders," Schutter said. "We have room to improve," Geders said. "But then again we were up against some of the top Division I, NAIA and Div. II teams in the country. Ryan [Maus] almost beat a kid from Iowa and Josh [Wells] did well after banging up his knee. We have room to improve but with that tough of competition I think we did pretty well."

The Bulldogs will compete next at the Simpson College Invitational on Dec. 3 in Indianola, Iowa. Nine of the teams competing are ranked either in the NAIA or Div. II. "It's going to be a tough tournament," Schutter said. "We've won up there and won it before and we've stuck it up before. It just kind of lets you know where you're at. It's tough on our schedule. We'll go out there and compete. Our kids are tough, resilient bunch or guys. They're a bunch of fighters."

Sports fanatic!
Apply to be a Sports Reporter for the Index!

Jobs can be scholarship or paid. Applications are available outside the Index office, located at 1200 Barnett Hall and online at www.trumanindex.com