Equality: worth the risk?

Administrators, Student Senate and faculty members debate offering benefits for same-sex couples

BY ANDREA HEWITT, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, AND JACQUE KINEMAL, NEWS EDITOR

Because of the increasing number of organizations offering benefits, from the Florida Alumni Council, Student Senate was inspired to work to pass a policy to help fund student organizations for same-sex couples.

During the past year, Student Senate has allocated student fees to fund student organizations for same-sex couples.

During the past year, Student Senate has allocated student fees to fund student organizations for same-sex couples.

Students remember

Retired professor dies

BY GRACE FREEMAN

Staff Reporter

Because of the increasing number of organizations offering benefits, from the Florida Alumni Council, Student Senate was inspired to work to pass a policy to help fund student organizations for same-sex couples.

During the past year, Student Senate has allocated student fees to fund student organizations for same-sex couples.

During the past year, Student Senate has allocated student fees to fund student organizations for same-sex couples.

Students remember

Retired professor dies

BY GRACE FREEMAN

Staff Reporter

Because of the increasing number of organizations offering benefits, from the Florida Alumni Council, Student Senate was inspired to work to pass a policy to help fund student organizations for same-sex couples.

During the past year, Student Senate has allocated student fees to fund student organizations for same-sex couples.

During the past year, Student Senate has allocated student fees to fund student organizations for same-sex couples.

Students remember

Retired professor dies

BY GRACE FREEMAN

Staff Reporter

Because of the increasing number of organizations offering benefits, from the Florida Alumni Council, Student Senate was inspired to work to pass a policy to help fund student organizations for same-sex couples.

During the past year, Student Senate has allocated student fees to fund student organizations for same-sex couples.