task force talks tailgating

By ashley jost

For student input

The Code revision Committee is requesting input from students on revisions to the Student Conduct Code as part of the student input forum committee, led by University Conduct Officer Mike Kral.

The first forum was held on Thursday, November 10, and included questions on the Student Conduct Code and the revision process.

The process is open to any student, and all questions and comments will be taken into consideration by the committee.

The first forum was held on Thursday, November 10, and included questions on the Student Conduct Code and the revision process.

The process is open to any student, and all questions and comments will be taken into consideration by the committee.

The first forum was held on Thursday, November 10, and included questions on the Student Conduct Code and the revision process.

The process is open to any student, and all questions and comments will be taken into consideration by the committee.

The first forum was held on Thursday, November 10, and included questions on the Student Conduct Code and the revision process.

The process is open to any student, and all questions and comments will be taken into consideration by the committee.