After eight years, Tate Job creation director retires

BY ANDI WATKINS DAVIS

Two years before Tate Job, a job creation director at K-REDI, retired on Friday, the Office of Economic Development in the Kirksville Chamber of Commerce was making a decision about the salary of the new director will be hired as a full-time position.

The new director will be hired with the budget is provided by members of the community, Sweet said. She said the rest of the budget is used for marketing purposes, and does not work with the numbers of the city, Sweet said. As a result, she said she thinks the state of the economy will be more important in this fall.

The unemployment rate in Adair County has increased .2 percent from the last year to 10.5 percent, according to the Jan. 12 issue of the Local Economics newsletter.
