very well. We just didn't execute.”

its first four series and intercepted Bulldog passes of which were during the second half that forced the Bulldogs to punt on three of their four possessions, and a 163-yard kickoff return that forced the Bulldogs out of the field of play.

scores of the game, the second of which was on a 37-yard field goal by senior kicker Kelsey Twellman to take the 1-0 lead over battle, recovering three of the Bulldogs' fumbles.

Brown said the team's performance against Truman is a little chip on his shoulder, being a part of a team that didn't make the playoffs last year.

Continued from Page 15

FOOTBALL

Brown said he has developed a strong group of friends and has progressed as a team leader since he came here.

Brown said the team's performance against Truman is a little chip on his shoulder, being a part of a team that didn't make the playoffs last year.

Continued from Page 15

Sorority

Swimming

The women's main challenge will be replacing a talented graduating class of swimmers and divers.

The men's main challenge will be replacing a talented graduating class of swimmers and divers.

Brown said he has developed a strong group of friends and has progressed as a team leader since he came here.

Brown said the team's performance against Truman is a little chip on his shoulder, being a part of a team that didn't make the playoffs last year.

Continued from Page 15

Sorority

Swimming

The women's main challenge will be replacing a talented graduating class of swimmers and divers.

The men's main challenge will be replacing a talented graduating class of swimmers and divers.

Brown said he has developed a strong group of friends and has progressed as a team leader since he came here.

Brown said the team's performance against Truman is a little chip on his shoulder, being a part of a team that didn't make the playoffs last year.

Continued from Page 15

Sorority

Swimming

The women's main challenge will be replacing a talented graduating class of swimmers and divers.

The men's main challenge will be replacing a talented graduating class of swimmers and divers.

Brown said he has developed a strong group of friends and has progressed as a team leader since he came here.

Brown said the team's performance against Truman is a little chip on his shoulder, being a part of a team that didn't make the playoffs last year.