County rescue seeks funding

Adair County Ambulance District employees wait on call yesterday afternoon at the Northwest Regional Medical Center. The district is having trouble hiring because of low starting pay.

"We don't have the money to pay for it. Crosby said. "The A4 package includes a room for rent of $115 per month, which would be $1,380 per year. Crosby said he had been attempting to arrange for a parking lot in the downtown area, but the property agent said it would be $1,200 per year. Crosby said he had been looking for a parking lot for some time, but the property agent had not been able to find one.

"We're not competitive with the county's other ambulance districts," Crosby said. "The county ambulance district does need to replace its ambulances in April, and none of the three district ambulances have been replaced since. Crosby said that the county ambulance district was having trouble hiring because of its low starting pay.

"Overall, there is a statewide shortage in EMT paramedics," Crosby said. "It hurts the county's recruiting ability. Crosby said that he had been attempting to hire a full-time employee, but the property agent had not been able to find a parking lot.

"People who know me, know that I am tight," Crosby said. "I learned that my starting pay is not competitive with the county's other ambulance districts. Crosby said that he had been attempting to hire a full-time employee, but the property agent said it would be too close to campus. Crosby said that he had been looking for a parking lot for some time, but the property agent had not been able to find one.
