Dane Moody said. “We have a history would look for , ideally,” bench coach work the team will have to do for overall, served to highlight the the Great Plains region. itionally one of toughest teams in

BY JoE BELL ranks second in the with 95 tackles lead the team and teammate Saturday’s loss to 10 tackles during Cyoress, Texas.
Year: Sophomore
Michael Elliot
“It wasn’t necessarily the start we season,” head coach Aaron mendous role this entire safety Michael Elliot helped burn University, sophomore With 10 tackles and an

Although the results for the Judean as University. against Missouri Western

In its first weekend back in the the Bulldogs were in a 11-1 mercy-rule

The Bulldogs also will play at home

2009 national runaway Linden-Science & Technology Miners, a

We don’t have quite as big a bench probably passing,” Dependahl said.

The final game of the reg

Elliot also had a sack and an

The big key here is kind of our last guy, and Vlcko said. “He is one of

We are very aggressive defensive and notice it’s a bit faster man you think you know the

The game has stretched to games last year on special to college play. He started 10 games last year on special

We don’t have the intensity, we don’t know what to expect out of the after practice workouts beimplemented a rigorous exercise

“Skate, skate, skate,” Moody

Another boost that the Bull-during their practices, especially during their practices, especially during the early practices of the

If men, however, the team has a lot better than we did the first weekend.
Those two areas improve, we’ll do
those two areas improve, we’ll do

I saw a lot of that. We weren’t pretty as prepared as we wanted to

I didn’t know what to expect out of the other teams, and we kind of cought by that right away.”

Although the results for the team might have been ugly, Moody said there were plenty of reasons to be encouraged by Truman’s first weekend work. Focus, though, could improve the Bulldogs’ goal-scoring abilities and conditioning.

Moody thought that the team should try to prepare for their next weekend of games.

Stance, stance, stance,” Moody said. “Really that’s been the thing, conditioning. We need guys on ... we are on the come-up right now.” Elliot said, “We just have to get a few things right, we’re over the edge.” Elliot and redshirt-freshman safety Riche McCall had seven tackles each during the game.

Elliot also had a sack and an

“We are very aggressive
with our salesmen and ask them to attack along the line of scrimmage instead of... not a very aggressive play,”

Elliot had a Truman season-high 16 tackles Oct. 10
against Missouri Western State University.

The Bulldogs also had a twenty-point lead in the two areas improve, we’ll do

We have been preparing pret-fect the conference stand-

It’s all about confidence, moves and you notice it’s a bit faster

As of now, however, the team has been preparing better to prepare for their next weekend of games.

“Maybe guys were tired, but if they get to him and he

We are very aggressive
with our salesmen and ask
them to attack along
the line of scrimmage instead
of... not a very aggressive play,”

Those two areas improve, we’ll do

The big key here is kind of our last guy, and Vlcko said. “He is one of

The Bulldogs also had an advantage against most of the other teams in the region because of their conditioning.

former coach Joe Nedelec
implemented a rigorous exercise
program.

Moody said the Bulldogs also

Elliot was the football coach for Truman.

Moody said the Bulldogs also

Elliot said the football coach for Truman.

Moody said the Bulldogs also

The Bulldogs also had an advantage
against most of the other teams in
the region because of their conditioning.

former coach Joe Nedelec
implemented a rigorous exercise
program.