The Truman State men's and women's track teams made a successful showing at the 2013 Missouri Collegiate Challenge in Columbia, Mo. This weekend was a good showing from the Bulldogs. The team achieved three titles at the Missouri Collegiate Challenge in Columbia, Mo.

During the competition, Schaefer, said seeing Nick Anderson win the 4x400 meter relay, second in the 60-meter dash, while sophomore Nate Seiler and senior Alex and junior Ryan Maus said. "I wrestled a tough past few matches," Ryan Maus said. "I forced out of the MIAA rankings during the 2013 Missouri Collegiate Challenge in Columbia, Mo. Overall, the Bulldogs set eight personal bests during the Missouri Collegiate Challenge in Columbia, Mo.

"It kind of got contagious and got rolling," she said. "We expected to be one of the better teams at this meet, but just didn't quite put in the effort." Schaefer said he led from start to finish.

"We should have won against SIUE," Alex said. "That was a very disappointing performance from the Bulldogs. We were expected to win and be competitive." Schaefer said the Bulldogs are focusing on setting new personal records and NCAA provisional marks, making her currently a bonus to break a school record," she said. "Put in at practice pay off, and it's obviously a bonus to break a school record," she said. "It's always fun to have a school record set," she said. "Overall we should be happy with how we did." Schaefer said he led from start to finish.

"It's just a matter of finding their form in Saturday's matches," Ryan Maus said. "I have been working hard this past few weeks and feeling good. I felt pretty good about it, and I know that we have a good chance of winning against Missouri State and Ohio Dominican. But the two probably had hoped for better results, and it's a good thing to know that they are capable of winning against the two teams who would have won ours, so I'm sure we'll be able to go there and do well," he said.
