Years gone by

Check out what made headlines in the Index during this week in year past

6 years ago

Snow storm forces students to stay on campus

A snow storm that hit the school forced students to stay on campus during the winter holidays. Students who did not have a car or bus pass were forced to stay on campus due to the severe weather. Many students who stayed on campus said they did not enjoy the experience, but they were happy to be back on campus.

17 years ago

Plans made to open Student Recreation Center

The Truman State Board of Governors made plans for the Student Recreation Center to be opened in 2007. The Board said only people affiliated with the University would be allowed to use the facility.

42 years ago

New cafeteria opens in Centennial Hall

The Truman State Board of Governors made plans for the Student Recreation Center to be opened in 2007. The Board said only people affiliated with the University would be allowed to use the facility.